

MOTHER SHOOTS INJURED BABY

'I Was Frantic!'—Almost beside herself with grief and remorse, young Mrs. Anna Kacedan, wife of a Boston lawyer, tells Patrolman Samuel Grimes how she shot her infant daughter—born on Mother's Day—when she thought the child was dying of convulsions. This striking spot-news picture was taken at Fields Corner police station, Dorchester. The hysterical mother was held there, as City Hospital surgeons sought to save the life of the baby victim.

600,000 HAIL KING, WELCOMED BY F.D.

By WALTER KIERNAN

International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 8—With a warm handshake and his famous smile, President Roosevelt today welcomed Their Britannic Majesties King George and Queen Elizabeth, to the capital in a reception symbolic of the traditional friendship between the world's two great democracies.

The tall, handsome young King of an empire on which the sun never sets and his blue-eyed Queen received an ovation such as Washington seldom before has accorded a distinguished visitor.

The shattering roar of saluting artillery, the stirring strains of "God Save the King" and the "Star Spangled Banner," the drone of army bombing and pursuit squadrons overhead mingled with the deep, thrushy cheer of 600,000 citizens who jammed the streets to catch their first glimpse of British royalty.

TROOPS LINE WAY

Virtually every high American dignitary, top-batted and in formal attire, accompanied by their wives, were on hand to greet Their Majesties.

Six thousand marines, soldiers and sailors, their military accoutrements gleaming in the hot June sun, lined the way from Union Station Plaza past the high-domed capitol and up historic Pennsylvania avenue to the White House.

In the blue-carpeted presidential reception room stood the President and Mrs. Roosevelt, surrounded by members of the cabinet, Vice-President and Mrs. Garner, Supreme Court justices and heads of the army, navy and marine corps, to extend America's official greeting to the King and Queen.

As they stepped from the royal train with Secretary of State and Mrs. Cordell Hull, their Majesties walked from the station platform through a double-lined marine corps honor guard to the reception room.

WITH UPROAR, US ACCLAIM

The marine band, dressed in formal parade blues and armed with bayoneted rifles, presented arms as the King and Queen stepped to the platform.

A tremendous, sustained cheer arose from the packed throng outside as word was flashed that the royal train had arrived.

The King wore the gold-braided uniform of a admiral of the Majesty's navy. Queen Elizabeth was an enchanting picture in an ensemble of "queen's blue."

The walk from the train to the presidential reception room took

10,000 Polish Jews Seized by Nazis to Be Exiled or Jailed

BERLIN, June 8 (AP)—Polish Jews who number more than 10,000 in Germany were reported being rounded up today by the Gestapo—secret police—either for deportation or concentration camps in a new Nazi effort to get rid of foreign Jews.

Jews said groups were being escorted to the Polish frontier daily after being given notice as short as 24 hours that they must leave. So far only men have been involved in the drive.

In Munich 400 Jews were reported under arrest. Undetermined numbers were in custody in Berlin and Breslau. Several hundred Jews in Dresden were given until noon tomorrow to get out of Germany.

Those who lost their Polish passports under a new Polish citizenship law last November are being taken to concentration camps while those whose passports are in order are being put across the Polish frontier.

The sending of new thousands to concentration camps was interpreted as a means of putting pressure on wives and other relatives to speed efforts toward finding new homes outside Germany.

Jews said two general reasons were given them by the Gestapo for the campaign: that Germany would not tolerate foreigners without passports and that it was a measure to counter recent Polish deportations of German citizens.

Many of them no longer are considered by Poland as Polish citizens because they have lived in Germany ten or more years.

Poland Warns Nazis She Will Retaliate

WARSAW, June 8 (AP)—A new German order expelling Polish Jews was reported today to have prompted the Polish government to repeat a warning of retaliatory measures against Germans in this country.

Last October the Polish government was said to have arrested 1000 Germans, threatening to send them into Germany if the transfer of Jews to the Polish frontier did not cease.

The latest German effort, according to the Krakow newspaper Ilustrowany Kurjer, involved 2000 Jews, including some from Vienna who, it was said, were brought recently to the German frontier station of Hindenburg, in Silesia.

Only 80 reached the frontier, the newspaper said. They were arrested and sent back into Germany because their passports and visas were not in order.

'Bangup' Story Of Dynamite; 60 Sticks Gone!

Here's a story with plenty of dynamite in it.

It's real dynamite, too, anywhere from 50 to 60 sticks of it, and it's lost, strayed or stolen from a specially constructed wagon vault, owned by the John McDonald Contracting Company and parked near the Lynn-Saugus branch railroad, where the company is building a sewer.

It is believed to have been taken by boys, who are now being sought before damage can result from explosion of the stuff. One stick was found in the possession of a 12-year-old youngster and was taken from him by Elmer Hussey, a neighbor. About a dozen sticks were found strewn along the railroad track, near the wagon vault, from which the lock was missing.

Police are conducting a house-to-house canvass in an effort to recover the explosive.

La Hepburn Chases Burglar to Save Gems

NEW YORK, June 8 (AP)—Katharine Hepburn, the actress, disclosed today that she chased a burglar from her town house when he awakened her from a nap Monday evening.

Her shout "what the hell are you doing there?" so unnerved the man, she said, that he dropped a pearl necklace and a heavily-loaded jewel case and fled.

Miss Hepburn, starring in a current Broadway play, took after him with her flowing dressing gown clutched in her hands.

They clattered down the broad staircase of her four-story town house in East 19th street, the noise attracting her butler and cook.

The burglar beat them to the front door, however, and jumped into a waiting car and raced off.

The intruder was fingered the jewel case in her boudoir when Miss Hepburn was awakened. She told detectives she could not estimate the worth of its contents, but she valued at $5000 the necklace the man dropped.

Bridal No Cure, He Drinks More

PORTLAND, Me., June 8 (AP)—Marriage doesn't reform a drinking man, but makes him worse, in opinion of Superior Court Justice George L. Emery.

Advising a divorce plaintiff that she should have "known better" than to marry a man who drank excessively, the court declared: "If you've got any idea you can reform a drinking man you'd better get it out of your head, because after marriage he will be worse instead of better."

Bridges Deportation Hearing June 27

EVERETT, Wash., June 8 (AP)—Harry Bridges, west coast CIO leader, has been summoned to appear June 27 in San Francisco for a special hearing relative to deportation proceedings against him.

Queen Mary Out for First Time Since Accident

LONDON, June 8 (AP)—Queen Mother Mary today made her first public appearance since she was slightly injured in an automobile accident May 23 when she joined others of the royal family to witness the trooping of the colors, on the official—not actual—birthday of King George VI, now visiting in the United States.

The King will be 44 years old Dec. 14. The official birthday is marked annually in June because there is better weather.

Some stiffness resulting from her bruises, was evident as the Queen Mother slowly entered her automobile at Marlborough House, but she was smiling.

Princess Elizabeth, heiress presumptive to the throne, was announced to be suffering from "a slight cold" and did not watch the ceremony.

Dorchester Mother Shoots Baby She Fears Is Dying

Frantic in the thought that she had mortally injured her infant daughter—born on Mother's Day—Mrs. Anna Kacedan, 30-year-old wife of a Beacon street lawyer, shot and perhaps fatally wounded the baby today.

The shooting occurred in the Kacedan home in Houghton street, Dorchester, where the mother, wife of Attorney Basil W. Kacedan, had fallen in a faint with the baby in her arms and recovered to find the infant feebly gasping for breath.

Temporarily insane with grief, in police belief, she ran to a traveling bag of her husband, took out his .32-calibre revolver and shot the three-week-old infant through the abdomen.

She had intended shooting herself also, she told police, but instead she seized up the unconscious baby, rushed downstairs to the home of Mrs. Josephine Ryan, shrieking hysterically.

"I've shot my baby! I've shot my baby. Call a doctor!" Mrs. Ryan telephoned for a physician, and when he arrived, he notified police.

Captain James Sheehan of Fields Corner station, with Patrolmen Samuel Grimes, Philip Gilson and James Neilly, raced to the house in a cruiser car.

The mother, with a nightgown trailing beneath a house dress, was placed in the car, and with Officer Gilson holding the blanket-wrapped unconscious infant, the auto raced for City Hospital.

HUSBAND TOLD IN COURT

Meanwhile, Attorney Kacedan, trying a case in municipal court before Judge A. K. Cohen, was notified of the tragedy and rushed out of court to go to the police station in Dorchester.

After giving him the tragic story, police sent him to the hospital, which he reached as his wife—the baby then on the operating table but given little chance to live—was being returned to the station.

She was booked on a charge of suspicion of assault with a dangerous weapon with intent to kill.

From there on the recommendation of Dr. Joseph F. Mollomo, police surgeon, she was sent to the Psychopathic Hospital for observation.

She had screamed in hysteria almost constantly on the wild ride from the house to the hospital and several times she attempted to snatch the baby girl from the arms of Patrolman Gilson.

CRISIS IN HYSTERIA

"I don't know what happened," she sobbed at other times. "I must have been crazy. I meant to kill myself. I want to kill myself!"

Dr. Louis Swarz and Calvin Klipp gave the baby first aid at the hospital, and then it was hurried upstairs to the operating room.

There was no necessity for removing the bullet, surgeons found, as it had pierced the abdominal cavity and then had emerged to the left, and then the slug had lost considerable blood.

Later it was found that the bullet had gone through the mattress of the bassinets in which Mrs. Kacedan had placed the infant after the fall, and then the slug had imbedded itself in the floor.

Attorney Kacedan told police his wife and he had been devoted to each other through their 12 years of marriage.

The baby was born on Mother's Day at the New England Hospital, the first child, with the birth leaving the mother in a weakened condition.

Kacedan said she had been in a Brookline rest home all last week, returning home on Saturday.

"NOW, TAKE IT EASY"—Kindly Patrolman Samuel Grimes gives remorse-stricken young Mrs. Anna Kacedan a drink of water at the Fields Corner police station, trying to calm her after hearing her story of how she shot her three-week-old baby daughter, in their Dorchester home. She thought the child was dying of convulsions.

FLY FOR PATRIARCA AS 4 EX-GOVERNORS FACE QUIZ

Plans to call four former governors before the special legislative committee investigating the so-called "parole racket" were revealed exclusively today to the Boston Evening American.

The same plans call also for appearance of all executive councilors who served with the four chief executives—Charles F. Hurley, James M. Curley, Joseph B. Ely and Frank G. Allen.

All four have been under fire at various times over pardons granted during their administrations.

The new and startling development was the highlight of investigation into pardons in general, that pardon granted to Raymond L. S. Patriarca, in particular.

COAKLEY ACCEPTS BLAME

Governor's Counselor Daniel H. Coakley appeared at a secret session of the committee this afternoon, and, before appearing, announced he had prepared the parole papers of Patriarca, Rhode Island's Public Enemy No. 1, and was willing to accept "all responsibility for any mistakes."

State Police Lieut. Joseph T. Crescio started with Lieut. Edward Sherlock by plane to Miami to return Patriarca to Middlesex county to answer three secret indictments, returned several months ago, at the instance of District Attorney Bradford.

Today's developments in a situation rapidly becoming fraught with the greatest possible political and social significance, whirled towards the climax of public hearings by the legislative committee.

Former Governors Hurley, Curley and Ely are Democrats and Allen is a Republican.

Coakley's appearance before the committee today was necessarily secret because, as it was explained, the inquiry prior to the beginning of public hearings is not yet complete.

ARREST IS SURPRISE

Patriarca was arrested in Miami yesterday in a surprise move, engineered by District Attorney Bradford after an evening session of the governor's council, and after Governor Saltonstall had announced that Patriarca had promised to return voluntarily to appear before the legislative committee at 10 a. m. Saturday.

The governor was informed of the indictments after his announcement. The charge is that Patriarca and Benjamin F. Tilley, with whom he was arrested, tried and convicted on two charges of robbery—Tilley is still in prison—stole an automobile from Stanley Sumner, manager of the University theater, Cambridge.

The three counts charge theft of the car, accessory after the fact of

11 AWAIT VERDICT AS JURY WEIGHS REVERE CHARGES

The fate of ex-Mayor James M. O'Brien, of Revere, and ten other defendants charged with conspiracy to operate gambling games at the beach resort, was placed in the hands of a Suffolk jury before Judge Allan G. Buttrick at 11:30 o'clock this morning after an hour and twenty-minute charge by the judge.

The defendants, accused of conspiracy in the operation of the Ruby Club, are in addition to ex-Mayor O'Brien, Louis Albert James Duval, Joseph Taitelman, Morris ("Pudgy") Rosen, "Tootie" Jack son and Max Pollack were dropped Tuesday by directed verdicts of not guilty.

SCORES O'BRIEN

In his closing arguments Assistant Attorney-General John S. Derham, prosecutor, declared the former Revere mayor obstructed efforts of police to cope with the gambling situation.

"O'Brien's interest in identity of the vigilantes who sent cards to Chief of Police Edward Tighe, complaining of gambling conditions, was proof that O'Brien was not on the level," Derham said, in his argument for conviction. "It was common knowledge," he continued, "that this joint, the Ruby Club, was operating. There's no doubt Chief Tighe got complaints and told the mayor. The mayor was more interested in finding out who the complainants were than in closing the joint. If he were on the level he would have told Tighe to clean it up."

ATTACKS TESTIMONY

"As far as a conspiracy is concerned, it doesn't make any difference whether O'Brien did it for friendship or with mercenary motives. The people of this state have a right to expect that organized rackets will be wiped out," Atty. James P. Brennan, representing the former mayor, argued that the state has failed utterly to prove any motive for a conspiracy and attacked the evidence of Chief Tighe that he had been told to "lay off" the Ruby Club as part of a "trade."

Court Frees Carroll On Contempt Charge

As the third Revere trial reached its climax today, William C. Carroll, Revere electrician who was charged with contempt of court because of his testimony in the first trial, was cleared by Judge Allen G. Buttrick at the request of Assistant Attorney-General John S. Derham in Suffolk superior court.

Carroll in the earlier trial repudiated his grand jury testimony, refusing to ink some of the defendants with the North Shore Club, Revere gambling resort on which Carroll did some electrical work.

As a result, Derham asked that he be held in contempt.

Today the prosecutor told Judge Buttrick that since Carroll was a resident of Revere, "there is no doubt that he was intimidated."

"There is no doubt that perjury was committed," retorted the judge.

He declared, however, that he realized there were extenuating circumstances, and acceded to Derham's request to discharge Carroll.

Jack Osterman, Actor, Dies at 37

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 8 (INS)—Jack Osterman, 37-year-old actor and Broadway master of ceremonies, died of pneumonia today in Atlantic City Hospital.

Osterman, whose real name was J. I. Rosenbath, was born in Toledo, April 8, 1902. His father was a noted theatrical press agent and his mother, Kathryn Osterman, was a famous actress.

In 1928 Osterman married Mary Dolores Daly, blonde Ziegfeld girl.

HOPE CHEST IS REMOVED FROM BURNING HOUSE
Future Bride's Prized Possession Saved

Sisters Brave Fire To Save Hope Chest

Awakened by roaring flames that destroyed an abandoned house on Newbury street, Revere, today, John F. Bernard, his wife and six children fled in their nightclothes as the fire spread to their own home.

A few prized possessions, including a hope chest for one of the Bernard girls, were saved before the two-story wooden house was swept by fire and smoke.

A score of homes in the Woodlawn section were menaced as flames burst through the roof of the abandoned dwelling. Four houses were touched off by sparks, but all were quickly extinguished.

Bernard awakened his wife and children as a brisk wind carried fire and smoke from the burning building across a narrow gap to his single family home.

Bertha Bernard, 17, and her sister, Eleanor, 14, were passed as the family fled, but the girls first ran to an adjoining room and dragged the hope chest toward safety until the men folk took up the task.

CROFT CREAM ALE

CROFT BREWING CO., BOSTON, MASS.

"Boston After Dark," by George Holland, appears every day in the Boston American.

OLD GLORY FLIES FOR FLAG WEEK

Flag Week opened today with a celebration to be climaxed June 14, Flag Day, with exercises in the schools and other places of public assembly.

Mayor Tobin called upon residents to display the flag throughout the week "so that Boston will actually be alive with Old Glory." He asked that churches hold special patriotic services.

To be certain that all would be informed, he issued a formal reminder yesterday.

But this morning there were no flags on display at City Hall for the first hour, although there are three flag poles in front of the building. At 10 a. m. Old Glory was hoisted, however.

Governor Saltonstall designated next Wednesday as Flag Day in a proclamation which asked:

"Our people to honor the day and the glorious banner which it commemorates by the display of the flag and by such exercises in the schools and places of assembly as shall bring home to us all the history of our flag and our duty to the republic for which it stands."

On June 14, 1777, the Continental Congress adopted the Stars and Stripes as the flag of the United States," the proclamation said. "This flag has during 162 years, led our nation in the paths of victory, prosperity and honor and symbolized to us the ideals for which our country stands."

BRITISH, JAPS NEAR BREAK OVER CHINA

By the Associated Press

Japan's relations with Britain were reported today in Tokyo to have become aggravated "almost to the breaking point" while London still struggled to remove obstacles keeping Soviet Russia from entering a mutual assistance agreement with Great Britain and France.

The British-Japanese issue arose from friction at several places in China. The newspaper Asahi accused Britain of trying "to intimidate Japan" in fear of collapse of Chinese resistance and in expectation of United States support.

One incident was the report of Tseui, Japanese news agency, that a foreign warship, "apparently a British cruiser," fired on a Japanese transport plane east of Hong-kong.

Other incidents included the death of a British cotton mill employee at Shanghai of wounds suffered in a fight with Japanese soldiers and the refusal of the British consulate at Tientsin to surrender four Chinese from the International Settlement wanted by Japanese as suspects in a slaying.

Authoritative sources in Tokyo also said Japan was preparing a "big new offensive" in China. Japanese planes based on carriers off the entrance of Swatow harbor yesterday attacked several Chinese-held islands nearby but a long-expected Japanese landing at Swatow, in eastern Kwangtung province, had not materialized.

William Strang, head of the Central European division of Britain's Foreign Office and an expert on Soviet Russian relations, has been picked to speed up the long negotiations between London and Moscow for three-power collaboration.

Strang will go to Moscow to aid Sir William Seeds, British ambassador, on the "one or two difficulties" which Prime Minister Chamberlain told the House of Commons yesterday still must be solved.

BROOM-WIELDING WIVES CLEAR ROAD

WILMINGTON, Pa., June 8 (AP)—A broom-wielding regiment of determined housewives took matters into their own hands today and began sweeping away ashes the state had promised to remove from a dusty highway.

The women barricaded the road for five hours yesterday and threatened another blockade today. The highway department finally consented to remove the ashes and cut the stretch through the little mining town.

When workmen failed to appear at 8 a. m., the housewives left breakfast dishes unwashed and marched forth with brooms swinging.

Two weeks ago the road was coated with ash and dirt over a stone lean laid several months ago. Clouds of dust from passing cars swirled into homes.

RUSSELL ORDERED SET FREE

WASHINGTON, June 8 (AP)—The Labor Department today ordered the release of Sean Russell, self-styled "head man" of the outlawed Irish Republican Army, who was taken into custody in Detroit while the British King and Queen were across the border in nearby Canadian territory.

Officials said the department's immigration service had telegraphed the release order to Detroit.

They say the service had approved bond for the Irishman's release pending a hearing on deportation proceedings Saturday in Detroit.

Some members of the House of Representatives had threatened to boycott Congress reception to their Majesties unless Russell were released.

Dr. Bolger, Cambridge City Veterinarian, Dies

Dr. David L. Bolger, 71, Cambridge city veterinarian for 25 years, and inspector of animals for the state, died suddenly today at his home, 159 Mt. Auburn street.

The son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James A. Bolger, he was a graduate of Cambridge High, McGill University, Class of 1887, and studied medicine at Harvard.

Funeral services will be held Saturday with a high mass at 9 a. m. at St. Paul's church. Interment will be at Mt. Auburn cemetery.

Reorganization Act Signed by President

WASHINGTON, June 8 (INS)—President Roosevelt has signed the congressional reorganization act, putting into effect July 1 the first general reorganization of the federal government in history, the White House announced today.

Search N. Y. Houses For 'Bomb for King'

NEW YORK, June 8 (INS)—Police plunged into a feverish search of 15 houses in New York city today after receiving word from federal authorities in Washington of an anonymous letter warning that bombs might be stored there for use against King George and Queen Elizabeth on Saturday.

It was learned the anonymous writer had warned the State Department the houses—mostly on the West and East Sides with a few in Queens—were used as meeting places for certain societies.

The addresses turned out to include some abodes, residents and meeting halls.

15 TO SEARCH HOUSES

The bomb and forgery squad and the criminal alien squad raced to the houses and began a search.

In advance of the warning, Police Commissioner Valentine detailed 1570 detectives—the largest con-described as an "Irish Patriot," from jail on a writ of habeas corpus.

"He would be dangerous to have at large while the King and Queen are here," Judge Allen ruled.

O'Rafferty has been in jail since Jan. 21, charged with being a member of a ring of seven men who blackmailed night club customers of $11,000.

Pay $10 to Look—Then See Only Queen's Parasol

WASHINGTON, June 8 (AP)—Queen Elizabeth, by using a parasol, crossed up people who had paid as high as $10 for a window seat to watch the parade. Persons standing in the street could see her well; those looking from above saw only the parasol.

tingent ever assigned to a single event—to search houses and plants along the West Side elevated highway and elsewhere from roof to cellar.

Detectives will be on guard on the rooftops when the royal pair passes.

SUSPECT IS HELD

It could not be established definitely if the King and Queen were to ride in a bullet-proof enclosed car, although it has been arranged to place them in an open car at the World's Fair.

Judge William Allen today refused to free Patrick J. O'Rafferty, 43, of Valley Stream, L. I.

Pardon Plea Paragraph Under Scrutiny in Patriarca Probe

SEND OFFICER SOUTH TO GET PATRIARCA

The state will comply with the request of the federal government to send Officer South to get Patriarca.

But now was immediately taken into custody by police in Miami where he has been held since with the hope of a few days' rest after a long flight from New York to Miami.

IN MIAMI TOMORROW
That Officer South would take the 8 o'clock plane for Newark tonight, which would get him to Miami at 10 tomorrow morning.

Patriarca is said to have written extradition papers and the fact will be sent back to New York for approval in Newark tomorrow. They will then be sent to the federal government in New York. Patriarca was taken to the Miami Police Station where he was held in the last of his flight. He was taken to the station by a car driven by a man who was not identified. When he learned of Bigelow's action, Mohr said, "They are still trying to make the poor but getting from under themselves. I hold no brief for the tax dodgers who try to escape their own responsibilities and then make it poor men who can't afford to bear the heavy burden of the cost of government."

102 Jews At Havana Admit 6

HAVANA, June 8 (AP)—A statement of the Jewish community in Havana, issued today, admitted that 102 Jews had been permitted to enter the city since the outbreak of the Spanish civil war.

Most of these Jews, it was stated, had been permitted to enter the city on the basis of their financial resources and their ability to support themselves.

A few relatives and friends were permitted to come to Havana. The full number of Jews who were admitted was 102.

Among these unable to land were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lasser, who, with their nine-month-old child had been expelled from Spain and had been in France and then Mexico seeking refuge.

DISCUSSES BOND

Another was the case of a Mr. and Mrs. Lasser, whose husband had been expelled from Spain and had been in France and then Mexico seeking refuge. The Jewish community in Havana had transferred sufficient funds to the Havana branch of the United Jewish Appeal to cover the cost of the passage of the Lassers to Havana. The Lassers had been in France and then Mexico seeking refuge.

Baby Shot By Mother

Today she appeared in good spirits and health, he said, and after she served him breakfast at 10:30, she went to her room.

When she returned to her room, she found the baby in a state of panic. She took the baby to the bathroom at 9:15 when, with the baby in her arms, she faintly heard a shot.

When she returned to her room, she found the baby on the floor, gasping feebly, and she believed that she had thought that she had fallen on the infant and fatally injured it.

She thought also, she said, of the additional burden this would cause her husband.

From the handling she procured for the baby, she said, she knew that the baby was dead.

At 10:30, she said, she called for a doctor. He came and found the baby dead. She said she had then called for a nurse and a doctor to come to her home.

Bares Slain Girl's 'Gangster Complex'

MAUCH CHUNG, 15, 111 S. INS.—State Police Corporal Benjamin Franklin today was the center of the fatal shooting of a 14-year-old Neponset girl, whose head was filled with thoughts of gangsters and gun fights.

Franklin, who was on duty at the time of the shooting, said that the girl, Mauch Chung, was a very quiet and reserved girl, who was very fond of her mother and father.

ALL FAITHS Librarians Protest TO STRESS Naming of MacLeish U. S. SPIRIT

The meeting takes place virtually on the eve of Bookers Hill Day when American patriots heroically defended American soil against foreign tyranny. Because of the present dangers facing American life it becomes necessary for good Americans to register their protest against the naming of MacLeish as a poet, but I should no more think of him as a librarian of Congress than as chief engineer of a new Brooklyn bridge.

"Recent relations of the House committee indicate beyond all doubt the necessity for a frank and open discussion of the dark, treacherous forces seeking to undermine American life and to betray American freedom."

MacLeish Hits Red Charges as 'Silly'

The charge that he is a "fellow traveler" of the Communist party is "silly and hardly worthy of an answer," Archibald MacLeish, Harvard University member, a disappointed head of the Library of Congress, declared today.

The most important library in the world needs the skill of a trained and experienced library administrator," Dr. Ferguson asserted. "I have high regard for Mr. MacLeish as a poet, but I should no more think of him as a librarian of Congress than as chief engineer of a new Brooklyn bridge."

Dr. Ferguson asserted: "If the librarianship of Congress is to be made a political plum, then it is an error to think of the library of Congress as the profession of a librarian as a whole will suffer by it."

Simmons Grads Bid Farewells To Alma Mater

The Simmons seniors, who have spent the last four years of their lives at the college, are bidding farewell to their alma mater. They are leaving behind a legacy of hard work and dedication. The seniors are proud of the achievements they have made and the friendships they have formed. They are looking forward to the future and the challenges it will bring. The seniors are grateful for the support and guidance they have received from their teachers and friends. They are proud to be Simmons graduates and will carry the spirit of the college with them wherever they go.

The Men Who Must Walk Like a Bear

THE ACCOMPANYING CARTOON from the Los Angeles Times satirizes pictures John Bull and Monsieur Francois as "men who must walk like a bear."

This cartoon portrays the European situation EXACTLY AS IT UNFORTUNATELY IS.

As the world knows, England and France are seeking to make an alliance with Bolshevik Russia.

Russia is willing to make an alliance, BUT ONLY ON ITS OWN HARD TERMS.

Russia is demanding that John Bull and Monsieur Francois conform to everything Russia wants—that they get down on their hands and knees, as does the Bolshevik bear walks, and do as the Bolsheviks bid them.

These men must WALK NOT BREATHE WITH THEIR EYES ON THE STARS, NOT ON ANY HOURS WITH THEIR FEET IN THE DIRT, BETRAYING DEMOCRACY TO BOLSHEVISM.

And, to crown it all, the very visit of Maxim Litvinoff to the United States STILL the clearest of all signs of the European situation. Litvinoff's presence is an effort to make the same walk in company with the Russian bear.

NO WORSE MISTAKE could be made FOR THE WELFARE OF THE WORLD than to permit these three nations support the forces of the Russian revolution and conform to its requirements. To do so is to surrender the DEMOCRACY OF ALL EUROPE AND THE SUBSTITUTION OF RUSSIAN TYRANNY.

It is a sad picture of the present state of the world history which this cartoon depicts.

In 1917, Russia, the most powerful nation in the world, collapsed of its own weight. It has been waiting in the air and murder and bloodshed the Russian people in the hands of the bloodthirsty Bolsheviks.

In France, Russia, Germany was responsible for the recent devastation of France, and for the death of millions of French soldiers. It is the cause of the depression of France, the destruction of French credit and the utter demoralization of French life. And France the unpreparedness of France for the future.

In England, Russia was responsible for the destruction of the British Empire.

Mathematical models of the system were developed by Dr. J. W. Smith, University of Illinois, Urbana, and Dr. R. L. Smith, University of Illinois, Chicago. The models were used to estimate the effect of the various parameters on the system. The results of the models are presented in Table 1. The models show that the system is highly sensitive to the parameters of the system. The most important parameters are the rate of change of the system, the rate of change of the system, and the rate of change of the system. You Can be Beautiful

Silken Film of Glamour

By ARLINE GOULD

A BATHING beauty on the beach is, alas, often apt to look more like a pale wraith, a negative of her original bright and pretty self, when she comes out of the water. If you can't bear to think of such a transformation for yourself, why don't you include in your summer sports kit, along with sunburn preventives, some waterproof make-up?

It's for all those trying hours when you can't replace make-up, say a three-hour ride down to Cape, when the car top is down and the first relay of breezes would instantly make it with every speck of powder you had put on.

Or for the times when you're going to play tennis for hours, and whoever heard of stopping an exciting game just because the rosy make-up of the double, partner has faded or partly away?

For the hours when you're out with your swimmer, to keep your face from looking like a watermelon.

which shines when it comes to ability to disguise blemishes, freckles and fine lines is a most inexpensive affair in stick form.

It goes on in a fine, silken film, that is one with your own skin, and miraculously pines over fine lines and wrinkles.

It's hard to say just which is the most glamorous of its several tones. We like either the creamy, luscious ivory tone which is so exactly what you want of the rosy red lips, or the soft, pale shade which is just what you want of the rosy red lips.

To learn about this must-have product, write to Arline Gould, 1111 Broadway, New York, N. Y., and I'll do my best to get you a sample of this product.

Learn Tennis Fine Points

Light on the feet is the key to success in tennis. You must be able to move quickly and easily.

And the key? She trusted her feet. She learned the fine points of tennis rules, taught by Spunky, but not hard to do.

Once you know the rules, you can play. It's not hard to do. You can be the one sketched at top right—serving with one foot over the baseline. This foot fault costs you a point, causes good players to put you in the dub class.

Correct to serve with both feet behind the baseline—as in sketch at bottom left. Nor do you jump with both feet in the air while you serve.

Speed in playing is largely a matter of footwork, and the key is to keep moving, not be out of position. Your opponent's ball is your ball.

Correct to perfect footwork with one foot back as well as forward. To a beginner, how to move is the key. In the end, it is the key to the game.

And of course, when you serve, you must be in the correct position. The key is to be in the correct position. The key is to be in the correct position. The key is to be in the correct position.

In our new 40 page booklet HOW TO IMPROVE YOUR TENNIS. Most commonly well known coach of champions shows you how to play good tennis. It explains and corrects footwork, offensive and defensive footwork. It gives you the key to the game.

All-Star Teams
Picked by Ladies

Joe Vosmik Is In Outfield

THE LADIES, may God bless them, are as much interested in naming the American and National League All-Star teams that will clash in New York on July 11 as are the men.

Joe Vosmik

Mr. Boston has received several hundred letters picked by women. This once more proves the interest of the ladies in baseball and the game of the All-Stars. The results of the vote will be announced in the All-Star game on July 11.

Will the support they receive from the ladies, however, be enough to make them the All-Star team? It is worth watching.

DAWSON'S ELIMINATES AIR

ENEMY NO. 1
OF ALE AND BEER
IN CONTAINERS

In ordinary packaging, air remains in bottles and cans before they are sealed. This air tends to impair the natural taste of ale and beer. Now Dawson's introduces a revolutionary new method which removes the air, thereby retaining the original flavor in every container. Every glassful is as fresh and sparkling as if just drawn from the aging tanks at the brewery.

Retail Trade Board Holds Annual Golf Tilt

MORNING LINE ON GOLF SLEEPSTAKE

Filene's Enters 20 In 'Sweep'

By BILL GRIMES

Beaten out of his chance to join the select winners of America's triple crown by the muddy Franks, "Johnstown" (or, a reasonable facsimile) the big bay from William Woodward's Belair stud, a former winner of the Kentucky Derby, an easier victor in the Withers X's and a five length winner in the 71st classic Belmont stakes last Saturday, goes postward this afternoon as the outstanding choice to capture the first annual Boston Retail Trade Board Sweepstakes at the Charles River Country Club.

"Big John" will run against a field of 65 starters. Although he is a prohibitive favorite in the betting ring, Johnstown will receive some stiff opposition from Happy Jack out of Filene's, who will have Jack McCarthy up, Bow Tip, from the Gilchrist Stable, who will be ridden by Ray Marand, and Miss Vahey, a Jordan entry, who will be piloted by Fred Dodge and Heavy Mist, with Frank Black carrying the White's Stable colors.

Assured that Happy Jack will give "Big John" a battle, the Filene's Stable is so anxious to finish in the money that it has entered almost two score of long shots. The bookies have made Ample Strokes, who'll have Dave Moser, up at even money to win and have refused all wagers attempted by place and show players.

In order to avoid arguments as to the winner, a camera will be installed at the finish and every contestant will be "mugged" as he races under the wire.

All in all, the Boston Retail Trade Board is holding its annual golf sweepstakes this afternoon. On this same page will be found the probable odds, jockeys and comment on the entrants.

MRS. BEARD PLAYS ALICE BELANGER

With the field reduced to the defending champion, three ex-titleholders, the state junior champion, a 1933 finalist, a former semi-finalist and one newcomer, the quarter finals of the 29th annual Women's Golf Association of Massachusetts continue today at the Weston Golf Club.

Mrs. H. Warren Beard, the defending champion, who eliminated Mrs. R. K. Byers, Hoon, Whislock and Mrs. F. H. Tarr, Jr., Rockport, is playing Miss Alice Belanger, United Shoe, who holds the state junior crown.

Miss Belanger opened her drive to the quarter finals with a 5 and 4 win over Miss Edith Stevens, the Country Club, and yesterday she put out Miss Laura Robbins, Weston, 4 and 2.

ALICE, GOOD SHOT MAKER

Naturally, Mrs. Beard has the call over her younger and less experienced opponent but the champion must be at the peak of her game to get through the little United Shoe representative, who is a fine shot maker and a great competitor.

The first match away this morning was Mrs. H. P. Prunaret, Jr., Charles River, and Miss Rosamond Vahey, Vesper, close pals on and off the links. They are meeting for the first time in a state championship and the outcome will have an important bearing on the final results of this championship.

Mrs. Prunaret has been pressed at Weston. She coasted to a 5 and 4 win over Mrs. C. B. Gay, Oak Hill during the first round and had even an easier time leaving Mrs. R. A. Gardiner, Dedham, 7 and 5 yesterday.

Miss Vahey has struggled in both of her matches but she managed to take out a 4 and 3 win over Mrs. Leslie Soule, Dedham, and then came through with a 2 and 1 victory over Miss Nancy Sutherland, Walpole.

MESSIRS DOW, BAKER COLLIDE

Mrs. Winthrop G. Dow, who has beaten two former champions this week, and who was a semi-finalist in 1932 and 1933, is playing Mrs. E. H. Baker, Jr., Oakley, who has won the state title no less than six times, while Mrs. John Grew, who was the champion in 1933, is out with Mrs. John S. Amory, Myopia.

Mrs. E. H. Baker, Jr., Oakley, vs. Mrs. W. G. Dow, Wellesley.

Hub Girl Joins R. I. Skaters

PROVIDENCE, June 8—As the result of the injury of one of the regular skaters on Eleanor Powell's Hollywood Stars, a Boston girl has been given an opportunity to skate in the 23rd annual Rhode Island Derby series being held at the Rhode Island Auditorium.

The girl is Ida Dennis and she is replacing Margaret Fisher, painfully injured soon after the series started. While Ida is making her first start as a professional roller skater, she is having no difficulty in keeping up with the rest of her teammates.

The Hollywood team got off to a flying start, soon after the series with the Providence White Skies opened. The West Coast stars won three games in a row to jump out ahead of Providence and tonight the sixth race of the series, they hope to pile up an even more commanding lead.

Midget Auto Racers Show at Topsfield

The midget auto race track at the Topsfield fair grounds opens tonight. The floodlight dirt speedway has been graded and re-surfaced.

More than 20 entries have been received. The first race of eight laps will leave the starting line at 8:30 with the feature whirl of 25 laps slated to start away about 10:15.

Three Maine Weight Men Go To Nationals

BRUNSWICK, June 8.—The State of Maine will be represented by three weight men at the National A. A. U. meet, Lincoln, Neb., in July. They are Bob Bennett and Stan Johnson of the U. of M., and Nick Perkins, Jr., of Bowdoin. The trio ranks with the best hammer throwers in the country. Bennett was recently crowned ICAA champion with a heave of 180 feet. Johnson, his teammate, won the state crown, and has done 175 feet. Perkins, a freshman, is not so well known because of that fact, but he ranks well up with the best of them.

Olympets Duel New York Nine At Garden

Softball steps into the Garden for the second time tonight when the Boston Olympets clash with the New York Americanettes in the main attraction of a double bill. The preliminary game has the Boston Gardeners mixing their first start against the Framingham Filles. The first game will get underway at 8 p. m.

The 'ts face another major foe when they square off with the Americanettes. This week's invaders is the sister team of the Roverettes at Madison Square Garden.

The Pets will present the same lineup that turned back the Roverettes last Thursday, with the exception of the third base position. Edna Stafford, Wakefield youngster, will be unable to appear because she is graduating from high school. Rose Mary Boyle of Framingham will take over third. Miss Stafford may be used as a pinch hitter as she expects to rush from graduating exercises to the Garden.

SWISS FACE LOSS OF GAMES

LONDON, June 8 (AP)—The international Olympic committee told Swiss Olympic officials today they must agree immediately to hold the 1940 winter games at St. Moritz under strict Olympic instructions or the site will be changed.

It was believed the delegates have ruled out Detroit as a possible site for the 1944 summer games. Although Italy also bid officially for the 1944 competition, London appears almost certain to be selected.

Bob Donnelly Defends Title

Bob Donnelly, Worcester R. C. star, will defend his State 440-yard freestyle swimming title at Leonard Field Pool, Winchester, on Saturday afternoon. Bob is also N. E. 440-yard freestyle and 300-meter medley champ, and holds the N. E. and State long distance championship.

Olneyville R. C. and Auxiliary of Providence will be well represented. Mary Kayser and Beryl Coburn are entered in the N. E. Junior 100-meter breaststroke. Edna Soltyniak is in the 100-meter freestyle open and Rita Gadbois is in the 100-meter freestyle for novices.

Will Your Hair GO

this Summer?

HAIR can be harmed or helped easier in the summer than at any other season. Improper exposure to the sun is sure to result in abnormal hair-fall. On the other hand, it is a known scientific fact that hair normally grows faster in the summer than at any other season. You can take advantage of this seasonal peculiarity by learning how and when to expose your hair and scalp to the summer sun.

A Thomas scalp expert will gladly examine your hair and scalp (without charge) and advise you in detail as to how to care for your hair during the summer months. He'll tell you how to get rid of your dandruff; how to stop abnormal hair-fall; and how Thomas treatment promotes normal hair growth on thin and bald spots. Call at a Thomas office today for a free scalp examination.

BOSTON, THURSDAY, JUNE 8, 1939

Entered as second-class matter at Boston Postoffice

1. Take-Off—In this gay parting at Washington, D. C., attractive young Senora Agripina Sarabia wished her flier husband, Francisco Sarabia, good luck, as he prepares to hop off on ill-fated non-stop sky jaunt to their native Mexico.

International News Photographers Service

2. Crash

—Here Sarabia's flight ends in tragedy, a few short moments after its hopeful start. Heavily loaded plane plunges into Potomac river, pilot dying, trapped in cabin. Rescuers come too late.

3. Grief

—Near collapse, after seeing husband plunge to death, Senora Sarabia tries to control her sobs, as son, Francisco, Jr., and Mexican diplomatic secretary seek to console her.
